

Terms and Conditions of Use

Use of the Web site constitutes an acknowledgment and consent by the user to the Terms and Conditions of use contained herein.

Terms of use are as of Jan. 1, 2016 and may be changed without prior notice.

The Smith Group online Web site (the "Web site") is a service provided solely as an accommodation to the user. Any information on website does not constitute an offering for investment interests or services. This website is not, and under no circumstances is to be construed as, a prospectus, advertisement, or public offering of investment interests and services. As with any investment vehicle, there is always a potential for profit as well as the possibility of loss. Under no circumstances should any material or information contained on the Smith Group website be re-distributed without the express written authorization of Smith Group.

Past performance is not necessarily an indicator of future returns. Stock market conditions vary from year to year, and can result in a decline in market value. Nothing contained on this website or indirectly via a link to an unaffiliated third party web site should be construed as a recommendation to buy or sell a security or economic sector or public offering of investment interests and services.

The information contained in the Web site is solely for the private, non-corporate purposes of the user. To the extent that any information contained in or derived from the Web site is used in connection with any research, investigation, or inquiry as to any security or contemplated investment in securities, user expressly acknowledges that Smith Group has no responsibility, obligation or duty as to any resulting investment decision; each user is solely responsible for his or her own research and any resulting decision. In exchange for using the Web site, user expressly agrees not to hold Smith Group liable for any possible claim for damages arising from any decision user makes based on information made available through the Web site. To the extent that a hyperlink appears on the Web site, such link does not constitute a representation, recommendation or assertion that the information contained on such linked site is accurate or is endorsed by Smith Group. Smith Group is not obligated to update any information or opinions contained on the Web site and may discontinue offering any information or opinions at any time without notice.

Smith Group is not liable for the termination, delay, interruption or inaccuracy of the content or transmission of the information on the Web site. Smith Group reserves the right to make changes and to update the Web site at any time without prior notice to the user. Smith Group will not be responsible for any loss or damage caused by, and user expressly disclaims any reliance on, the use of this Web site or any information contained in the Web site or any hyperlinked area. User acknowledges that his, her or its access to and use of the information is entirely at his or her own risk, and that it is the sole responsibility of the user to evaluate the accuracy, completeness and usefulness of all the information contained in the Web site.

Representative Client List: Representative clients, if shown, have been selected on the basis of the following objective criteria: (1) clients who are selected have provided either written or verbal approval for use of their name by Smith Group, and (2) their inclusion allows Smith Group to give a fairly balanced representation of all client types. Inclusion on the list does not reflect an endorsement of our firm nor the advisory services provided, and performance was not a factor in the selection criteria.

Holdings, Economic Sectors and Characteristics: Certain portions of Smith Group's web site (i.e. articles, commentaries, etc.) may contain a discussion of, and/or provide access to, Smith Group's positions and/or recommendations as of a specific prior date. Due to various factors, including changing market conditions, such discussion may no longer be reflective of current position(s) and/or recommendation(s). No client or prospective client should assume that any such discussion serves as the receipt of, or a substitute for, advice from Smith Group. It should not be assumed that recommendations made in the future will be profitable or will equal the performance of the securities and economic sectors shown. A list of recommendations made within the last twelve months is available upon request. The information shown is not intended nor should it be construed to be a recommendation to buy or sell an individual security or economic sector. Any portfolio characteristics or holdings that are shown are intended to present the portfolio as it existed on the date of the report. You should not assume that these same characteristics or holdings will exist in the future.

Earnings Surprise: According to many academic studies, earnings surprise has had a positive relationship to relative performance in most time periods and for most companies. However, this does not mean that this relationship exists for all time periods and for all companies. In the recent past, periods coinciding with an inverse relationship between earnings surprise and relative performance have typically been periods in which corporate earnings are not the focus of investors' attention. Additionally, companies which have had a chronic negative relationship between earnings surprise and relative performance are typically those companies whose earnings are not product-driven, such as commodity companies. There is no assurance that the historic positive relationship between earnings surprise and relative performance will exist in the future. Nor is there any assurance that the historic ability of Smith Group to forecast a high rate of positive earnings surprise companies will exist in the future.
